

INVITATION

Ukrainian – Swedish research and practice conference

Ukraine after the war: museums as a gate to the future

June 3, 2022 at 8.30 – 12.00 (CET) and 9.30 – 13.00 (EES)

Organizers: National Academy of Arts of Ukraine, Development Centre Democracy through Culture (Kyiv), Swedish Museum Association with member partners

Objectives: For museums in Sweden to learn about the current situation for museums in Ukraine today in order to understand their needs. Building a platform for future cooperation. Explore possible cooperation in order to support Ukrainian museums now and after the war.

CET/EES

08.30/09.30

Welcome, Maria Jönsson (City Museum of Norrköping, Sweden), Viktor Sydorenko (National Academy of Arts of Ukraine) and Olexandr Butsenko (Democracy through Culture, Ukraine)

Keynote speakers

- Concrete situation for museums in Ukraine, museum collections, their staffs and researchers in Ukraine
- Role of heritage and museums after the war – saving cultural values: museums as a gate to the future, role of museums and heritage centers

Needs assessments in focus groups

Swedish museums – how we can assist today

Presentation Museum of the Year-concept as a useful tool for museums development

Topic for discussion:

Possible practical steps: twin museums, exchange exhibitions, research programs, educational programs, etc.

12.00/13.00

End of conference – we will see you soon!

Platform: Zoom (note that the conference will be recorded as well as consecutively interpreted (to or from Ukrainian))